Mr. Rapley's son-in-law, Jerry B. Paisley, will hereafter look carefully after the wants of the traveling public in the hotel. Everybody is acquainted with Jerry and know him to be a kind, good-hearted, obliging gentleman and the Rapley House will be properly run under Jerry's management.

A stalwart, muscular man has always been, is now and forever will be admired. It is the duty of every person to become strong. This can be done by constant and intelligent training. Strength so derived should be utilized in doing the tasks assigned to us in our every day existence. Pugnism is a base prostitution of that strength. There are countless legitimate sports where strength of limb and dexterity can be utilized without the accompaniment of the demoralizing effects of the prize ring or the six-day bicycle race. Men that engage in prize ring tactics are lower in the plane than dumb animals.

J. A. Rapley, attorney, Yale. The large frame barn of Jacob Schlechter, three-quarters of a mile west of Brown City, together with the farming implements and a quantity of hay and grain was totally destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock a. m. March 30. The loss is estimated at $1,000 with no insurance. This is the second barn that Mr. Schlechter has lost by fire within the past month and it is thought that incendiaries are at work.

C. E. Patterson, of Millington, was arrested yesterday on the serious charge of carnally knowing a female over the age of 14 and under 16. The complaint was sworn out by the mother of the girl, Mrs. Chas. Gilman. Mr. Patterson waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court at Vassar Times. Mr. Patterson is the gentleman who published the Yale Progress some years ago. He is now editor and publisher of the Michigan Forester.

Americans are the most inventive people on earth. To them have been issued nearly 600,000 patents, or more than one-third of all the patents issued in the world. No discovery of modern years has been of greater benefit to mankind than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has done more to relieve pain and suffering. J. W. Vaughn, of Oakton, Ky., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for several years, and find it to be the best medicine I ever used for cramps in the stomach and bowels. For sale by Will Lennon, druggist."
